Membership Application / Renewal July – June

The Eltham District Historical Society Incorporated encourages interest in the local history of Eltham and our Local History Centre is at 728 Main Road, Eltham (corner Brougham Street).

Membership of our Society offers:

- Use of the Society's records containing many items of local history
- An invitation to 5 Society Meetings each year held at the Eltham Senior Citizens' Centre with guest speakers who cover local and historical topics of interest
- Our informative newsletter sent 6 times each year prior to the Society Meeting nights
- Involvement in the conservation of local historically important photographs and documents
- Excursions and heritage walks to places of historical interest

Our Local History Centre is the former Police residence, which was built in 1860 (it is leased from Nillumbik Shire Council). Next-door is the former Eltham Courthouse (c1860), which can be visited by schools and organisations by arrangement with our Society.
